

The Swedish Hearts Center® Welcomes You to An International Summer Conference

*A New Spiral of Freedom for Scandinavia:
Saint Germain's new Teaching on Communication with the Spiritual world.*

Bollnäs, August 7–10, 2008

Come and be a part of a new spiral of freedom for Scandinavia that is being released during this conference through presentations on practical spirituality, singing, dancing and other fun activities and also many dictations and darshans from the Ascended Masters through an anointed messenger, David C Lewis. This new energy of freedom will be anchored in and through receptive hearts throughout Scandinavia for the enlightenment and increased spiritual freedom of all. Be a physical anchor point of freedom by being present at this conference and forevermore emanate the accelerated violet laser light of freedom through your being!

Through oneness with your Higher Self you have greater access to spiritual dimensions of being, and thus communication with the spiritual world becomes the rule rather than the exception. During the conference you will receive new teachings and practical exercises. This conference will both encourage you to come up higher and give you the spiritual sponsorship and the practical tools to do so.

Bollnäs is a small town beautifully situated by Lake Varpen. Everything is within walking distance including public transportation, restaurants, stores and swimming and other recreation.
